Taking over

Sometimes we need to lose our way, to find our way.

A journey of a thousand miles, start with a single step.

A wide-angle photograph of a vast, deep blue ocean under a grey, overcast sky. The horizon line is straight and divides the image roughly in half. The water has a textured surface with small, dark blue waves. The sky is a uniform, muted grey. In the bottom left corner, the text "The sea is the limit." is written in a white, sans-serif font.

The sea is the limit.

Why you should drink water?

KEEP CALM
